ST JOHN'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CATHEDRAL, PORTSMOUTH

RELEASE IMMEDIATE

Date of release: 10 April 2005

Fr John from the Philippines, a devout Roman Catholic country, has recently arrived at St John's Roman Catholic Cathedral where he will be working over the coming summer months. Portsmouth has a substantial Filipino community and it is Fr John's wish to meet as many of his fellow Filipinos as possible during his stay in our city. Accordingly anyone from the Philippines is cordially invited to contact St John's Cathedral. The words below in Tagalog, native language of the Philippines, mean: 'If you come from the Philippines, I hope you will be in touch'.

KUNG KAYO AY TAGA PILIPINAS ...

Fr John Azarcon from the Philippines has recently arrived at St John's Roman Catholic Cathedral where he will be working over the coming Summer months. Like the many Filipinos already living here in Portsmouth, Fr John is no stranger to travel. It is to meet as many of his fellow Filipinos while in Portsmouth that Fr John has extended a warm invitation for anyone from the Philippines living in and around Portsmouth to contact him either by post (St John's RC Cathedral, Edinburgh Road, Portsmouth PO1 3HG), by telephone (9282 6170) or e-mail (stjcath@portsmouth-dio.org.uk).

Tagalog is the native language of the Philippines. So, in the words of Fr John, asking anyone from the Philippines to be in touch: 'Kung kayo ay taga Pilipinas, sana makipag ugnayan kayo sa amin'.
